Aloha from Hawaii

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I want to thank you for a quick reply to my earlier letter. I realize that you are a busy man and I thank you for your time.

I would like very much to have a copy of the Zapruder film. If you would be able to secure it for me, I will send you the money soon, so that you can hold it for me until I get out of the Army.

You said that you were broke, in debt, and couldn't help with prices because you had to buy all the copies of FRAME UP yourself. There's a copy on sale in Honolulu for $10.00. But rather than give the $10.00 to the store, I'd be willing to send you $10.00 for a copy. I have a friend who would also like a copy; therefore I'd be happy to send $20.00, plus postage and insurance, for 2 copies of FRAME UP. Let me know the exact price so that I may send the money.

Your copies of POST MORTEM are for sale "only under restrictive conditions (no use made or permitted) and then only to some collectors and some scholars!" If you would consent, I would send the money for a copy of POST MORTEM to be reserved until I get out of the Army. Then, upon meeting you in person, you can give me the copies of POST MORTEM and the Zapruder film. If for any reason, after meeting me, you decide you don't want to give me the copy of POST MORTEM, you can exercise your right to give me only the Zapruder film and simply return the money for POST MORTEM.

Do you have PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH? Is it priced at $5.00 plus postage and insurance?

As you put it, your quick reply of July 5 was in haste. I am in no rush because I won't be leaving the Army for a year and a half. If you are as busy as I imagine, reply only at your convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Jon Meros
